Re: United States v Nijmah Marte, 22 MJ. 2591

Your Honor:

I represent Nijmah Marte in the referenced case and am submitting this letter to request permission for Ms. Marte to travel. As you may recall, on March 23, 2022, we appeared before this Court and the parties agreed that she could be released on the condition of home incarceration, among other conditions. Yesterday, Ms. Marte's pretrial officer recommended to me that she apply to participate in a program run by Exodus Transitional Inc. In order to do so, she first needs to attend an assessment on May 6th. Thus, we ask permission for her to leave her residence at 1 p.m. on May 6, 2022, travel to Exodus (which is located at 2268 Third Avenue, New York, NY 10035), and return home by 5 p.m.

Pretrial consents to this request. AUSA Kevin Meade informs me that the government takes no position.

Application GRANTED. SO ORDERED.

Respectfully submitted,
